The functions of a story for children

1. a trial, a sort of emotional rehearsal
2. A story to retell to friends
3. Some good company without the need of socializing

Bentley says it is an inner experience...alone but in the middle of many actions and people in one's mind.

SOME COMPULSORY RULES FOR WRITING FOR CHILDREN

1. They are young but as demanding as adults
2. Be careful with the point of view
3. Make them participate in the story
4. Explaining, not reading. Put yourself in their shoes
5. Do not pretend to seduce the adults, this is a story for children
6. Be careful with fantasy, a child is a child
7. The names of the protagonists? Simple and straight
8. Characters should be one-dimensional
